✓ DESCRIPTION

Hojiblanca Olive

With a late maturation, this is one of the most cultivated olives due to its versatility and strength. It can be used to produce olive oil and also as a table olive. It is for this reason that it receives a great deal of attention in the research and development (R+D) process applied to the fields of Sevilla.

✓ INGREDIENTS
